

Tips for Trainers – how much do the participants remember?

We remember ...

The message is clear – people remember what they DO as they are being trained, much more than what they only hear or see.